MEETING Saturday Night, June 3,

Candidate for Commonwealth Attor'y will address the citizens. Other candidates will be given an opportunity to be heard. All candidates that the public are cordially invited to attend. The date has been postponed owing to the day being Decoration Day.

The assembly room at the Woman's College presented a beautiful scene last night, upon the annual exhibition of the art class of the college. The exhibition presented many splendid works of art, in water, black and white and tapestry. Miss Laura I. Bacon, instructress, appeared very proud at the fine showing made by her pupils, and had nothing but praise for them. Her endeavors are to clevate the standard and to place those in her class upon the highest plane. From the showing made in the exhibit inst night, she is meeting with pronounced success.
